

To Whom It May Concern
Edited by Emma Judge

Was £6.99, now just £1.00!

Celebrating the 10th anniversary of democracy in South Africa, "To Whom It May Concern" is a compilation of stories told by a range of people associated with Skillshare International over more than 30 years, focusing on those working or volunteering on programmes in the southern African region. Most of the stories are told here for the first time, reflecting the solidarity and comradeship with people across a physical and cultural divide, united in their desire for a just society.
